SYNAXARION: Archippus the Apostle, Philemon the Apostle & his wife, Apphia, Onesimos the Disciple of Paul; Holy Martyr Cecilia and those with her; Afterfeast of the Entry of the Theotokos into the Temple; Kallistos Xanthopoulos, Patriarch of Constantinople; Anthimos, President of Crete.

Resurrectional Apolytikion (Grave Mode): Lord by Your sacred cross You abolished death, and granted to the thief blessed paradise. The myrrh-bearers ceased lamenting and turned to joy; the apostles did preach the good news at Your command that You are risen from the dead, O Christ our God, bestowing Your mercy upon the world evermore.

Apolytikion of the Feast (4th Mode Mode): Today is the prelude of God's good pleasure, and the proclamation of humanity's salvation. In the temple of God, the Virgin is presented openly, and in herself she announces Christ to all. Let us, then, with a great voice cry aloud to her: "Rejoice, you are the fulfillment of the Creator's dispensation."

Apolytikion of St. John the Baptist can be found on page 24 of the Divine Liturgy Book.

Kontakion: The very purest abode of the Savior, and the most priceless bridal chamber and Virgin, the most sacred treasure of the glory of God, today is led inside of the house of the Lord, bringing in the grace with her of the Holy Spirit. It is for her God’s angels sing in praise: she is truly the heavenly tabernacle.
Readings for 9th Sunday of Luke

Epistle Reading is from Ephesians 2:14-22

Brethren, Christ is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility, by abolishing in his flesh the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby bringing the hostility to an end. And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built into it for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

Gospel Reading is from Luke 12:16-21

The Lord said this parable: "The land of a rich man brought forth plentifully; and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?' And he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God." As he said these things, he cried out: "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Will Join Us to Stand Guard Over the Tampa Bay Area?

At a military base, certain soldiers guard the base at night, while the other soldiers are sleeping, so that the soldiers who are sleeping can sleep peacefully, known that others are guarding them. In the Tampa Bay area, the Greek Orthodox Clergy have committed to celebrating Divine Liturgy in at least one church for the forty days of the Nativity Fast. (A tradition known as the Forty Liturgies of the Nativity Fast). Each week, there will be a certain day (or days) in which our parish will be the only parish celebrating the Divine Liturgy in this area. It is as if we are standing guard spiritually over this area, and it is really an honor to do this. We are calling the Holy Spirit down on the Tampa Bay area every day for forty days, and on many of those days, this will only happen at St. John. So will you join me in standing guard over the Tampa Bay area this week? This week, our unique liturgical days are Monday, November 23; Tuesday, November 24; and Saturday, November 28. Orthros on all three days will be at 9:00 a.m. with Divine Liturgy at 10:00 a.m. We will have Divine Liturgy on Wednesday evening, November 25 for Thanksgiving. However multiple churches will celebrate on November 25.

Extra Nativity Bags are available until we run out. — We will have extra Nativity bags for anyone who has not received one by the baptistery. If you didn’t get one and you’d like one, please pick up one on the way out of church.

Fifty-Two Verses in Fifty-Two Weeks: The Bible Project

November 22-28

Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise. Psalm 95:2

Thanksgiving week is here! Most of us will have food, family and football on our minds as we mark this holiday. Thanksgiving should also be a “holy-day.” It should be a day that we make a joyful noise to God with songs of praise, thanking Him for the family and food that we will enjoy. We should make Thanksgiving an every day celebration, not from the food and family perspective but from the perspective of gratitude, being thankful to God for all of His gifts which we enjoy every day, not just on this holiday. This week, whether it be Sunday, or Thanksgiving Eve, we should come into God’s presence in worship, receiving Christ in the Holy Eucharist. And we should enter our parish for worship each time with grateful hearts, making joyful noise in singing His praises.
Update and Announcements

Sunday School continues — Please do this with your children. There will be a video presentation for pre-school through sixth grade. There is a sheet of questions for teens and adults.

Click here for the video presentation!

Click here for the lesson and challenge for today!

Men’s Group — The Men’s Group will meet on tonight, Sunday, November 22 at the church at 5:00 p.m. We will walk to a nearby restaurant, eat dinner, then return to the church for discussion, concluding by 7:30 p.m.

GriefShare and Bible Study pause this week — We will take this week off for GriefShare and both our Bible Studies. We will resume these ministries the following week.

Monday Night GOYA Event — GOYA will have a special get together on Monday, November 23, from 4:00-9:00 p.m. We will have time for fellowship, a movie, games, and a discussion. Dinner will be served.

St. Katherine the Great (November 25) — St. Katherine was born in Alexandria, Egypt in the third century. She was very wise and eloquent, successfully arguing for Christianity in the face of tyrannical rulers and philosophers. She was martyred in the year 305 and her relics were taken by Angels to Mount Sinai where they were discovered many years later. St. Katherine has the title “Pansophou” the “All-Wise.”

Evening Liturgy for Thanksgiving (November 25) — In Greek the word for Thanksgiving is “Eucharistia,” so the Holy Eucharist is the “Holy Thanksgiving.” As we celebrate Thanksgiving with turkey and the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday, set aside Wednesday to receive the Holy Thanksgiving. As is our custom at St. John, we will celebrate Divine Liturgy for Thanksgiving on Wednesday, November 25 at 6:00 p.m.

A Week of Thanksgiving — During Thanksgiving Week, there will be 5 Divine Liturgies and one Paraklesis offered in our parish. We will celebrate Divine Liturgy at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 22; Monday, November 23; Tuesday, November 24 and Saturday, November 27. We will also celebrate Divine Liturgy on the evening of Wednesday, November 25 at 6:00 p.m. Paraklesis will be Wednesday, November 25 at 10:00 a.m. Since the Eucharist means “The Holy Thanksgiving” what a great way to bring spirituality in our feast of Thanksgiving. Everyone is encouraged to come to at least one of these services, as we ask for God’s grace to come on this area during the week of Thanksgiving.

in the Tampa Bay Area Churches
Details at tampabayconference.org

The Forty Liturgies of the Nativity Fast
It is a custom in certain Orthodox Churches to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for all forty days of the Nativity Fast. These tend to be larger parishes with multiple clergy and large congregations. As we bring this chaotic 2020 to a close, we have decided in the Tampa Bay area to celebrate the Forty Liturgies of the Nativity Fast in our area, so that at least one parish is celebrating the Divine Liturgy each day. With this flyer, you’ll find a calendar of who is celebrating, as well as information should you wish to attend in person or virtually. We hope that you will avail yourselves of the opportunity to worship more frequently during this period of the Nativity Fast.

We will celebrate 23 of these Divine Liturgies at St. John. If you wish to attend Divine Liturgy in person or virtually, the opportunity is there to do this for 40 days.

As we approach the season of Advent, I wanted to share with you a book I have written called, Let All Creation Rejoice: Reflections for Advent, the Nativity and Epiphany. The book is approximately 230 pages long. It contains a reflection to be read daily during the period of the Nativity Fast (November 15) through January 7. From November 15 through December 24, one verse of the Gospel accounts of the Nativity is examined in detail each day. It is practical inspiration written to be understood by the average Greek Orthodox Christian.

+Fr. Stavros

Although this book is written in an easy to read style - the concepts and application are very thought provoking! My husband and I have been reading it at meal time, as our Advent meditation. Each day's readings help me turn my mind to what's really going on and important this time of year - helping me refocus, and reflect on the events surrounding the Nativity, and what they mean for me! Today's reading, for example, reflected on the angel telling the shepherds, "Don't be afraid," and following reflections on fear in my own life. Excellent book, and now that I am enjoying this one so much, I will be ordering the Lenten reflections, too. -Amazon Customer

A must read for any Christian wishing to renew their spiritual life during the Christmas season. -Amazon Customer

Taking This Year Off from Greek Festival

As you know, we had to cancel the Greek Festival this year because of the pandemic. It is not smart or safe to offer it at this time. We look forward to having this again in 2021. With this in mind, obviously, we are not going to get a big piece of income that we receive from the Festival each year. We are encouraging parishioners to give whatever you can to help offset this loss of income. As a suggestion, consider giving what you would have spent at the Festival had you attended this year (what you would have spent on food or a raffle ticket, etc.) and we will use this money to make up for the shortfall.
