VISION:

SYNAXARION:

42 Martyrs of Amorion in Phrygia; Finding the Precious Cross by St. Helen; Hesychios the Wonderworker;

Apolytikion of the Week (4 Mode):

When the tidings of the Resurrection from the angel was proclaimed unto the women disciples, and our ancestral sentence also had been abolished, to the apostles, with boasting did they proclaim: that death is vanquished evermore and Christ our God is risen from the dead, granting to the world His great mercy.

Apolytikion for St. John:

The memory of the just is observed with hymns of praise; for you O Forerunner the witness of the Lord is sufficient. You have proved to be truly more venerable than the prophets. Since you were granted to baptize in the river, the One Whom they proclaimed. Therefore, you strove for truth, proclaiming with joy the Good News, even to those in Hades: that God was manifested in the flesh, and takes away the sins of the world, and grants to us His great mercy.

Kontakion (Pl. 2 Mode):

O Wisdom’s guiding star, provider of prudence, instructor of the foolish ones, and the defender of the poor: support and give understanding, O Master, to my heart. You give me words, who are the Father’s Word; for behold I shall not hold back my lips from crying out to You: O Compassionate One, have mercy on me who has gone astray.

Welcome to all of our Visitors “Welcome one another just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.” Romans 15:7 We pray that your worship experience with us today will be inspirational and uplifting. Please introduce yourself to an usher or a member of the Welcoming Ministry and pick-up a “welcome packet” as you exit the church. We are happy that you are with us today!

Fifty-Two Verses in Fifty-Two Weeks: The Bible Project

March 6-12

“For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

Matthew 6:21

The verses this month will match with our acronym of HABITS for Lent. The first letter, H, is for “have a plan.” Jesus tells us in Mat-thew 6:21 “For where your treasure is, there will your heart be al-so.” Many of us live our life with a budget. Not only a budget for money, but for time and energy. We budget time for our families, for our jobs, for our hobbies, for leisure, exercise, sleep, etc. We budget our money for our mortgage, entertainment, bills, and necessities. We also budget for luxuries like a night out. In planning where our time and money goes, it is good to reflect how much time and money goes towards our Orthodox Christian faith. How much time do we spend praying, worshipping, reading Scripture, etc.? If there are 168 hours in the week, subtract the hours you sleep, work, take care of family, do household chores, spend on entertainment and hobbies, and then see how much remains for your spiritual life and for charity. Take your income and subtract the bills and the necessities and how is the rest divided? Where we put our time and our treasure says a lot about our faith. If we take all our time and our money and subtract all the necessities and luxuries, how much is left for God and our practice of the faith? It takes an intentional plan to put God in our budget of time and money. Ideally, He should get the first place and not the left-overs.

GriefShare meets every Thursday In-Person at 6:30 p.m. It may be hard for you to feel optimistic about the future right now. If you've lost a spouse, child, family member, or friends you've probably found there are not many people who understand the deep hurt you feel. This can be a confusing time when you feel isolated and have many questions.

"Going to GriefShare feels like having warm arms wrapped around you when you're shivering." GriefShare groups meet weekly to help you face these challenges and move toward rebuilding your life. Each GriefShare session has three distinct elements: Video seminar with experts, support group discussion with focus and personal study and reflection. We will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Thursdays, starting January 21, for 13 weeks, ending on Thursday, April 22. For February, GriefShare will meet February 3, 10 17 and 24. For more information please contact Donna Hambos at 813-843-8412 or dhambos@msn.com. Books for the program will be provided. Donation for the book suggested but not required. Open to all family and friends. Griefshare remains open enrollment with support towards healing and hope. You can begin at any time.

RSVP for Young At Heart's March 12 Meet, Liturgy, Lunch, Learning—The Young At Heart will meet for Saturday of Souls on March 12. We then will participate in an exciting discussion and activity led by Fr. Stavros. Following this we will meet in fellowship at the hall and eat together. If you haven't RSVP yet, please let Bill Manikas (wmanikas@gmail.com) know you'll be coming. We'll be ordering from Evos; please submit your order to Pres. Denise (denises54@hotmail.com) no later than March 7.

We are pleased to announce that "Man of God," the highly anticipated award-winning film based on the inspiring life of our beloved Orthodox saint, Saint Nektarios of Aegina, is coming to movie theaters across the United States on Monday, March 21st as a one night only Fathom Events release. Our parish is organizing an opportunity to see it together with our church community. Everyone is invited to attend this special screening.

If there is enough interest, we have been in contact with the manager at the Regal Citrus Park Theater to inquire about getting a block of seats in a private auditorium on Monday, March 21 at 7:00 PM. Tickets will cost approximately $12-14 each.

Readings for Forgiveness Sunday

Prokeimenon: Make your vows to the Lord our God and perform them. God is known in Judah; his name is great in Israel.

Epistle Reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Romans (13:11-14; 14:1-4)

Brethren, salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed; the night is far gone, the day is at hand. Let us then cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. As for the man who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not for disputes over opinions. One believes he may eat anything, while the weak man eats only vegetables. Let not him who eats despise him who abstains, and let not him who abstains pass judgment on him who eats; for God has welcomed him. Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for God is able to make him stand.

Gospel Reading is from Matthew (6:14-21)

The Lord said, "If you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. "And when you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by men but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Liturgical Notes

Sunday, March 6 - Forgiveness Sunday (Cheesefare)

Cheese-Fare Sunday is the last day in which dairy products are allowed. The Monday after Cheese-Fare Sunday is the official beginning of the Great Lent; this Monday is also called Clean Monday (Kathara Deftera). On Cheese-Fare Sunday the Church commemorates the sending away of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Paradise. Adam and Eve were in complete harmony with God, nature and themselves. They were tempted by the devil and they agreed to eat from the tree of knowledge, in order that they themselves might become gods. The result was fatal; they were cast out of Paradise and sin came into the world. The Holy Fathers selected this event to remind us of our obligations to God and about the laws of fasting and Christian behavior (Matthew 6:14-21).

Sunday, March 6 - Forgiveness Vespers

Great and Holy Lent begins on Monday, March 7, a day called Clean Monday, or “Kathara Deftera” in Greek. Vespers is the service that ends one day and begins another, so we will celebrate the Vespers of Forgiveness and beginning of Great Lent on Sunday evening, March 6, at 6:00 p.m. This service lasts about an hour and marks the beginning of Great Lent, which is announced during one of the hymns mid-way through the service. During this hymn, the priest changes vestments from white to purple, the lights in the church are dimmed and the mood of the service becomes somber. In fact, it is the opposite of the Resurrection Service on Easter, where everything begins dark and goes to light. The service concludes with a prayer of forgiveness being read over the congregation and the exchange of mutual forgiveness among the members of the congregation. This service is an especially appropriate way to begin the Lenten season, and for those who attended last season, is one of the most moving services of the church year.

Monday, March 7 - Canon of St. Andrew

The Penitential Canon of St. Andrew will be read from 10:00-11:00 a.m. on Monday, March 7 as we begin Great Lent. The Canon, in its entirety, takes hours to read. We will read and chant an abridged version of this Canon on Clean Monday. Service books for this service will be available in the narthex.

Monday, March 7 - Holy Unction on Clean Monday

The Sacrament of Holy Unction is always offered during Holy Week on Holy Wednesday. But the sacrament can be done at any time of the year. The emphasis of this sacrament involves, spiritual healing, spiritual cleansing and repentance. What better way to begin Great Lent than the sacrament of Holy Unction. Please bring your Holy Week book to follow along. The service will be held on Monday, March 7, from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Divine Liturgy to begin at 9:45 a.m. on the Sundays of Great Lent

Since the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great is offered on each Sunday of Lent, and this Divine Liturgy is slightly longer than the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, the Divine Liturgy will begin at 9:45 a.m. from March 13-April 17. The Choir will begin the Doxology at 9:40 a.m.

Mondays of Lent - Great Compline

The service of the Great Compline will be read on the following Mondays of Lent—March 14, March 21 (4:30 p.m.), March 28, April 4 and April 11. This service lasts about an hour and consists of Psalms and hymns of repentance. Service Books for this service will be available.

Wednesdays of Lent – 9th Hour and Pre-Sanctified Liturgy

The Divine Liturgy of the Pre-Sanctified Gifts (also called Pre-Sanctified Liturgy) will be held on the Wednesdays during Great Lent. This service consists of Vespers with Holy Communion that was “Pre-Sanctified” the previous Sunday. It is an opportunity to receive Holy Communion frequently during the season of fasting. The Pre-Sanctified Liturgy is preceded by the reading of the 9th Hour, a short service with penitential prayers as well as the recitation of the Creed, a pre-requisite for the reception of Holy Communion. Service books for this service will be available. The Pre-Sanctified Liturgy will be celebrated on the following Wednesdays of Great Lent: Wednesday, March 9; Wednesday, March 16; Wednesday, March 23; Wednesday, March 30; Wednesday, April 6; and Wednesday, April 13. Each ministry is encouraged to attend one Pre-Sanctified Liturgy as follows:

Wednesday, March 9 Choir
 Wednesday, March 16 AHEPA/Daughters of Penelope
 Wednesday, March 23 Nursing/Welcome Ministry
 Wednesday, March 30 Philoptochos
 Wednesday, April 6 Sunday School
 Wednesday, April 13 Parish Council

Fridays of Lent - 9th Hour and Pre-Sanctified Liturgy

The Pre-Sanctified Liturgy has Traditionally been celebrated on Wednesdays AND Fridays of Great Lent. The 9th Hour will begin at 9:30 a.m., with the Pre-Sanctified Liturgy from 10:00-11:15 a.m. The Pre-Sanctified Liturgy will be held on the Fridays of Lent as follows: Friday, March 11; Friday, March 18; Friday, April 1; Friday, April 8; and Friday, April 15. Pre-Sanctified Liturgy will also be held on Monday, March 14, with the 9th Hour at 9:30 a.m. and the Pre-Sanctified Liturgy at 10:00 a.m. Pre-Sanctified Liturgy will also be held on Monday, March 14 at 10:00 a.m. (9th Hour at 9:30 a.m.)

Fridays of Lent - The Salutations to the Virgin Mary (Heretismoï)

This service also lasts about an hour and is a series of prayers and devotions that invoke the intercessions of the Virgin Mary for our salvation. It will be held on March 11, March 18, March 25, April 1 and April 8. Service Books for this service will be available.

Saturday of the Souls – Saturday, March 12

It is a Tradition in the Orthodox Church to offer prayers for the souls of all of our loved ones who have departed this life, in the hope of the Resurrection to Eternal Life. There are four Saturdays of the year that are dedicated specifically to this purpose. There are three Saturdays at the beginning of Lent and the Saturday before Pentecost. Everyone is encouraged to submit the names of their loved ones to be commemorated at the services. Everyone is encouraged to attend one of these services (and bring Kolyva) if you are able, as a way of honoring the people in your family who have passed away, once a year.

Sunday, March 13 - Sunday of Orthodoxy

A grand procession with icons took place on March 11, 843 A.D., marking the permanent triumph of icons and their return to the churches after a 150-year absence. From this time, icons were defined as objects to be venerated and not worshipped. They are spiritual mirrors through which we see the heavenly saints. Their restoration in our churches is a true victory for Orthodoxy. Thus, on the first Sunday of Lent each year, the Orthodox Church celebrates the Triumph of Orthodoxy with a procession of icons, together with the reading of a Synodal Statement, authored in 843, marking their return to the church. If anyone has new icons that have not been blessed, please bring them to church on Sunday, March 13, the Sunday of Orthodoxy, and place them in the windows of the church. They will be blessed with Holy Water during the service.
