VISION:

Love God, Love your neighbor and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ as an Orthodox Christian community.

MISSION:

The mission of St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church is to welcome and serve people with love, truth, joy and peace, and to create an environment that encourages all to seek salvation through Orthodox Christianity.

CORE VALUES:

Love, Worship, Community, Learning, Service

SYNAXARION:

3rd Sunday of Luke; Pelagia the Righteous ; Pelagia the Virgin-martyr of Antioch; Phillip, Bishop of Gortyna

Resurrectional Apolytikion:

The stone that had been sealed before Your tomb by the Judeans and the soldiers guarding did watch over Your pure and sacred Body. O Savior, the third day You arose, and unto all the world did You give life. Whereby all the heavenly powers did proclaim that You are the Giver of Life: Glory unto our Resurrected Christ; Glory unto Your Kingdom; Glory to Your dispensation, O You Who alone loves all.

Apolytikion of St. John:

The memory of the just is observed with hymns of praise; for you O Forerunner the witness of the Lord is sufficient. You have proved to be truly more venerable than the prophets. Since you were granted to baptize in the river, the One Whom they proclaimed. Therefore, you strove for truth, proclaiming with joy the Good News, even to those in Hades: that God was manifested in the flesh, and takes away the sins of the world, and grants to us His great mercy.

Apolytikion of the Feast:

In you, O Mother, is preserved undistorted what was made in the image of God; for taking up the cross, you followed Christ and by example taught, that we should overlook the flesh, since it passes away, and instead look after the soul, since it is immortal. And therefore, O devout Pelagia, your spirit rejoices with the angels.

Kontakion:

A protection of Christians unshamable, intercessor to our Holy Maker unwavering, reject not, the prayerful cries of those who are in sin. Instead, come to us for you are good, your loving help bring unto us, who are crying in faith to you. Hasten to intercede and speed now to supplicate, as a protection for all time, Theotokos for those who honor you.

Welcome to all of our Visitors "Welcome one another just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God." Romans 15:7 We pray that your worship experience with us today will be inspirational and uplifting. Please introduce yourself to an usher or a member of the Welcoming Ministry and pick-up a "welcome packet" as you exit the church. We are happy that you are with us today!

Holy Communion is offered only to Orthodox Christians who are in good canonical standing with the church and who have prepared through prayer and fasting. Everyone is invited to receive the Antidoron (Blessed Bread) at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

Order for Holy Communion—With Sunday School out of session the order for Holy Communion will be as follows:

1. Choir
2. Altar boys
3. Sunday school teachers (who will line up in middle aisle before Communion)
4. Sunday school students (who will line up in the middle aisle before Communion behind the teachers)
5. Then the rest of the congregation

Greek Dance Groups

Y Hara Mas (3rd-6th grades) will have Greek dance practice today for 45 minutes, from 12:15 to 1:00pm. Please meet by the stage in the Kourmolis Center at 12:15pm ready to dance! We will continue practices every Sunday following the Divine Liturgy, from 12:15 to 1:00pm, until the Greek Festival. Costume fittings will take place on two Sundays, October 15 and 22, after dance practice. If your dancer plans to perform at the Greek Festival on Saturday, November 4, and you have not yet received an email, please email your dancer's name and grade level to Maraquet Edquid at maraquet@gmail.com. Thank you!

Greetings Parents and Hara Mas dancers K-2 (ages 5-7)

Reminder:

We will continue to have dance practice every Sunday until the festival. Please meet after church in the hall by the side of the stage closest to the kitchen. Please be sure to write your names (parent and child) and email/phone on the paperwork provided on the stage. You can purchase a costume online or borrow a costume. If the latter please see me. See you Sunday for dancing and cookies! Any questions: Alexandra DeMaio 813-340-9668

PAREA DANCE GROUP (7th-12th graders)

We will have practice every Sunday after that unless there is a GOYA meeting that day (October 1, 15, 22 and 29). We are also planning to have a couple of Saturday practices given the limited time we have before the festival. Please email Marina Choundas at mchoundas@outlook.com if your child will be dancing in the Parea dance group this year and provide your child's name, age, grade and your (the parent/guardian's) email and cell number. Thank you!

FOOD PANTRY

The Food Pantry Ministry is grateful for the donations on our 'First Sunday of the Month' Collection Day. It was a success! As a reminder this will be on going, however donations and/or gift cards are welcome anytime. Your donations help us help others! With Appreciation from our Ministry.

Readings for Sunday, October 8

Prokeimenon: Let your mercy, O Lord, be upon us. Psalm 32.22,1

The reading is from St. Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians 9:6-11

Brethren, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work. As it is written, "He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your resources and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for great generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God.

The reading is from The Gospel According to Luke 7:11-16

At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!"

Daughter's of Penelope & AHEPA

Dear Parishioners.

As we do each year the Daughter's of Penelope with the support of AHEPA are participating in a community service project - WALK TO END ALZHEIMER'S in Tampa. It will be held on November 11th at Amalie Arena at 8AM. Everyone is welcome! It provides an opportunity to raise funds by asking your friends and relatives to sponsor you in your walk or just to donate to you to meet the goal you set for yourself this year. We hope you will join us in the fight to find a cure for this disease. Join us or reach out to Maria Zabetakis at 813-748-7709 or visit our team site to register or simply to donate at:

https://act.alz.org/site/TR?team_id=843963&pg=team&fr_id=16469

Here are some facts on why it's so important to find a cure.

Alzheimer's disease is a devastating brain disorder that slowly destroys a person's memory and thinking skills. It's the 6th leading cause of death in the United States¹ and affects over 6 million Americans.² One in three older adults dies with Alzheimer's or another form of dementia—killing more people than breast cancer and prostate cancer combined.² The impact of Alzheimer's is felt by everyone who is touched by the disease, including the person with the diagnosis, their family, friends, and caregivers. Many loved ones will bear the weight of this disease, facing significant challenges along the way. Witnessing someone you love gradually lose their memory and abilities takes an undeniable emotional and physical toll. The ripple effect of Alzheimer's disease is a reminder that its reach goes far beyond those living with the disease.

THE TWELVE DISCIPLES PROJECT

Soon, St. John will distribute a refreshed list of names to all registered members of our Twelve Disciples Project for October 2023. If you are not presently a member and wish to join a group of your fellow parishioners, praying for the well-being of members of St. John the Baptist's Congregation, please contact Mathew Balasis, (727)345-4855, (mathewbalasis@verizon.net) for details. Your participation is free, and will benefit you by improving your personal prayer discipline.

“Let us come to know every member of our Church by their name and in their dignity as a child of God. Let us honor every name within our Church. Let us open our own hearts to learn from one another.”

Liturgical Notes

Sunday, October 15 - Special Prayer for Medical Personnel

St. Luke, Apostle, Evangelist and also Physician, has his feastday celebrated on October 18. In conjunction with this, as he is the patron saint of doctors, we are going to offer a prayer for everyone in the medical field on Sunday, October 15, at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy. All doctors, nurses, dentists, researchers, students, and anyone connected to the medical field is encouraged to attend.

Tuesday, October 18 - Feast of St. Luke

St. Luke was one of the Four Evangelists, along with Sts. Matthew, Mark and John. He was an artist, writer, and doctor, and is probably one of the most intelligent of all the saints in the history of our church.

Wednesday, October 18 – Paraklesis Service of Supplication to the Virgin Mary

We will continue to offer Paraklesis once a month, so that we can pray for all the members of our community by name, out loud.

Fifty- Two Verses -In- Fifty- Two Weeks October 8-14

Never flag in zeal, be glow in the Spirit, serve the Lord. Romans 12:11

It is amazing how much can be said with few words. There are only twelve words in this verse from Romans 12:11, get they give such powerful guidance. To “never flag in zeal,” pertains to our enthusiasm for Christ, for the Church, for Scripture, for service, for obedience to the commandments. These opportunities should excite us, inspire us, and focus us. Imagine if we were glowing with the Spirit. We’ve all seen glow bracelets that are used at dances. In the darkness of the dance floor, you can see arms aglow with the glow bracelets. Imagine if people could see the glow of the Holy Spirit in us, if in a dark world, like on a dark dance floor, we were illu-mined by the power of the Spirit and in turn illumined others as well. Serve the Lord. We are either serving ourselves or we are serving the Lord. When we serve others, we are serving the Lord. Thus, it is a question of whom do we serve? Ourselves or Him? We need to be consistent in our zeal, our enthusiasm for the Lord; we need to be glowing in a way that illumines others and brings others to the light, and we need to consistently serve the Lord. This is another example of how clinging to even one verse of Scripture as a guide can change our lives and center them on Christ and serving others.
